

FISCAL NOTE

HB 279 - SB 263

February 14, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Under current law, local governments have the responsibility of monitoring contractor's worker's compensation requirements. This bill would move that responsibility to the Contractor's Licensing Board within the Department of Commerce and Insurance.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - $21,600 - Recurring
$16,000 - One-Time

Decrease Local Expenditures - Exceeds $100,000

Estimate assumes:

	Recurring	One-Time
One Clerk 3:
Salary	$18,000
Benefits	3,600
Office Furnishings		$ 2,000
Computer Equipment		4,000
Printing - Redesign and reprint new license and renewal license application forms		10,000
TOTAL	$21,600	$16,000

Some cities have had to hire new people to take care of the paperwork required by the present law. This estimate assumes that any cost incurred by local governments under present law will not be incurred under the provisions of this bill.
